FRRS Yahoo Group

It looks like Yahoo is finally pulling the plug on Yahoo Groups. On 10/16/19, I downloaded all the files that people had posted to the group. On 10/17/19 I downloaded all the messages. They were from the years 2000-2019. I created separate files for 2000, 2001 and 2003 to make sure the download was working correctly and then did the rest as a single file for 2003-2019. There is a total of 4,276 messages. I created a new folder on cloud.wplives.org, Yahoo_FRRS_Group, as admin and put the material in it.

I don't really think there is anything that is particularly important, but I did not want to lose the history. The last real post was Nov. 2, 2018 by Eugene. The most recent post from someone other than Eugene or myself was April 17, 2017. There was discussion last year about moving the FRRS Group from Yahoo to groups.io, but due to the inactivity of the group, I see no justification in doing so.
