

35th ANNUAL

Portola Railroad Days

3-Day Celebration of Portola's Railroad Heritage
August 25-27, 2017

Train rides, Golden Spike Parade, Western re-enactors, classic car cruise-in, vendors, raffles, and an assortment of athletic activities like the Willie Tate Memorial Run are just a few festivities happening during Portola Railroad Days.

Experience hands-on history at the Western Pacific Railroad Museum, offering free admission for Saturday and Sunday with train ride tickets only $4 adults, $2 children and $10 for family.

Heritage engines UP 1983 (Western Pacific) and UP 1989 (Denver and Rio Grande Western) are expected to be on display at the museum throughout railroad days. So climb aboard, and come celebrate!
