The next step is to have the Board of Directors review these Candidate statements next week to make sure that they meet the rules in Paragraph K in the Nomination and Election Policy and for the Board to take action if necessary, as stated in Paragraph K. Once approved, the Board will need to send these approved statements to the Election Committee for election processing.

Note: March 2, 2020 is the last day that a candidate may withdraw from the election process in writing to this Election Committee.
