Re Western Pacific Railway Company.

Dear Mr. Evans,

I received yesterday your note of the 16th instant, transmitting original of executed agreement and supplemental release, dated June 9, 1911, signed "Utah Construction Company, by David Eccles, President; Attest: Henry H. Roloff, Secretary", between Western Pacific Railway Company and the Utah Construction Company, covering Patrick Gibbons' claim for work done at or near Bloomer Bar by Mr. Gibbons, who was a sub-contractor under the Utah Construction Company on their work for Western Pacific Railway Company under Contract "A". Should this not be Contract "B", as set forth on the first page of the "agreement"?

Yours sincerely,

A large, stylized handwritten mark that resembles the letter "E" or a similar symbol.
