

FINAL CERTIFICATE

Western Pacific Railway Company,

Gentlemen:

I hereby certify that the whole work provided for in that certain contract between yourself and The Utah Construction Company dated April 2nd, 1907, and known as Contract "J," has been acceptably completed and that the value of the said work done estimated upon the basis of the prices named in said contract and in the case of work done under Sections six and seven of said contract estimated as provided in said sections respectively, is $1,288,579.29, that The Utah Construction Company has received on account of said work $1,223,798.98, and there remains unpaid $64,780.41.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name as Chief Engineer under the terms of said contract, this 31st day of January, 1910.

(Signed)

VIRGIL G. BOGUE

Chief Engineer of Western
Pacific Railway Company