DEPARTMENT
WESTERN PACIFIC RAILROAD MUSEUM

	SECTION	SUBJECT
	VOLUNTEER POSITION DESCRIPTION	Flagman or Crossing Guard

Position Title: Flagman or Crossing Guard

Description/Purpose of Assignment: The purpose of the Flagman or Crossing Guard is to maintain the proper clearance of a railroad crossing.

This task involves keeping vehicles and pedestrians clear of the railroad tracks when a train is approaching and making a move across the crossing.

It also includes keeping the general public, and others that visit the museum grounds, clear of tracks and switches. Visitor safety is a major part of the responsibility of the Flagman or Crossing Guard.

This position is vital to the museum and requires patience and strong attention to detail.

List of Tasks:

- Ensuring passenger and visitor safety
- Understanding the proper flagging of a vehicle or pedestrian crossing
- Working with other operating department members
- Assisting in exhibit preparation and moving equipment when needed
- Assisting in cleaning cabooses, locomotives and museum grounds

Outcomes/Goals: The volunteer will know the assignment of a Flagman or Crossing Guard and performed successfully according to acceptable Operating Department policies and procedures. Since a significant part of the Flagman or Crossing Guard assignment requires handling of visitors, the performance is also based on courteous, proper and safe operation.

Training: All volunteers are required to attend the annual Operating Department rules testing and training. The Flagman or Crossing Guard must attend a formal and requisite training session that is focused specifically on proper handling of duties and visitors. Other topics include instructions for other railroad equipment and handling of museum equipment.

	VOLUNTEER POSITION DESCRIPTION	Flagman or Crossing Guard

The Museum Volunteer Manager or Operating Department Superintendant will supervise all volunteers; however, an experienced volunteer may assist/lead in orientation and training.

Reporting: All volunteers are expected to maintain a time log of hours worked. This log will remain in the Volunteer Lounge, Operations Office or other location described from time to time. Additional reports, such as progress reports, may be needed as requested by the department manager and/or superintendant.

Time Commitment: WPRM prefers that each volunteer agrees to a minimum number of hours per month of museum service, but fewer hours are accepted. Any work that can be completed at home or outside the museum may be done at the convenience of the volunteer, provided it has been approved.

Qualifications Needed: Flagman or Crossing Guard candidates should possess an attention to detail, enjoy handling large responsibilities and interacting with the general public.

Previous experience will be taken into consideration in determining qualification for this position.

Previous experience is not needed, but training is required. The Operating Department has very specific requirements for Flagman or Crossing Guard.

Flagman or Crossing Guards must meet all Operating Department “Entrance and Service Requirements” for the Flagman or Crossing Guard position.

The ability to write neatly and legibly is preferred.

There is one class of Flagman or Crossing Guard:

1. Flagman or Crossing Guard
